2012 MONTREAT YOUTH CONFERENCE
Montreat, North Carolina

2012 CHPC SERVICE & SIGHTSEEING
Philadelphia & New York City

July 29-August 12, 2012*

*dates for combined events, see brochure for details about partial trip

We will come together as a community of faith in this sacred place. Free of distraction, we will focus on the God who accepts us just as we are. While we have fun with friends, we will celebrate God through meaningful, creative and interactive worship. Youth will be inspired and challenged to affirm and deepen their sense of Christian identity.

This summer we have an incredible opportunity to be with hundreds of other Presbyterian youth from all across the country in an open, loving and safe community which challenges and empowers.

This will be a conference like no other we have been to before. You will be exposed to some of the top youth leaders from across the country. In the midst of the pressures and messages of culture and society, you will be equipped to discover what is real about God, us, and the world.

This week long conference will be filled with music and singing, recreation, worship, small group discussions, new friends and fun, fun, fun. Following the conference we will push north to Philadelphia for a half-week of cultural immersion and community service work and then end our time together exploring the vastness of New York City.

Who is eligible to attend?

Any student who will be in senior high in the '12-'13 school year (yes, that means all you incoming eighth graders through seniors) and any graduating seniors from the class of 2012.

About Montreat Youth Conferences

A Montreat Youth Conference is a unique event—a gathering of young people from all over the country for a week of study, worship and recreation. Montreat Youth Conferences are designed for high school students by a team of students and adult leaders over a two year process and are co-sponsored by our General Assembly Office of Youth Ministries.

CHPC has a history of making periodic pilgrimages to Montreat Youth Conferences both in North Carolina and Colorado. When you listen to the faith stories of former students from CHPC they always include transforming experiences from a Montreat Youth Conference.

Since the late 1990's it has become tradition to add a mission/community service project week to our Montreat week and we are continuing the tradition in 2012 with a summer immersion project in Philadelphia and then some sightseeing days in New York City.

About Broad Street Ministries

Broad Street Ministries is an alternative new church development housed in the former Chambers-Wylie Presbyterian Church located in the Center City area along the Avenue of the Arts. It's mission is to provide a place of worship, expression and service to others.

Broad Street Ministries offers a variety of service/mission projects for youth and young adults including the summer immersion program we have been accepted to this summer. The immersion program gives youth and opportunity to engage in many types of community service giving them the experience and vision necessary to return home and find ways to make a difference in their own communities.

Our service projects will be supervised by Broad Street staff members and leaders.

Cost Analysis

There are a variety of components that affect the cost of this type of conference including the event base cost, transportation, layover days for travel, etc. We will be working diligently to bring the cost to $850 per person for both weeks which will include transportation, lodging, food and program. We have created a transportation fund for this summer's event that will endeavor to cover the cost of transportation but it may be necessary to host a fundraising event that all participants will be expected to help facilitate with their time. If you register by January 22, 2012 we will guarantee your cost not to exceed $850. Cost for Montreat only is $650 and Philly/NYC only is $550.
